Description

Three bedroom detached house, located just a few kilometres from the beautiful Emba village and just a short distance from Paphos city center. It has appealing architecture and spacious areas.

The house is designed to blend the use of the traditional stone and face to face concrete, combined with the green surroundings. It makes it an ideal investment whether for a holiday home or a permanent residence.

Situated in a gated resort, has green surroundings, sea views, has a landscaped garden and it is close to all city amenities.

It has the option to come with roof garden, furniture package, electrical appliances and swimming pool but it will cost extra.

Estimated delivery: 10-12 months from signing the contract.
