Description

This modern detached villa, offers 120 square metres of ground-floor living space with three bedrooms and one bathroom. The open layout flows across the main floor, with all three bedrooms accessible from central circulation space. The kitchen and living areas connect directly, creating a compact, efficient floor plan. A single bathroom serves the property.

Outdoor parking is available on the grounds. The villa comes unfurnished but can be furnished on request. Utilities and maintenance responsibilities follow the standard rental terms for the property.

Kato Polemidia is a residential district adjoining Limassol. The area sits close to the highway, making access to central Limassol straightforward. Local shops, pharmacies, restaurants and markets lie within the neighbourhood. Apartments and villas make up most of what is built here, predominantly low-rise. The setting is inland, away from the coast.
